Restaurant Review Crew

Pancho's Authentic Mexican Cuisine

By Candice Shaffer

If you are looking for an experience and not just a place to eat, you have to check out Pancho's in Summerlin! Owner Abbot Lawrence has created a restaurant to be proud of. This is the second Pancho's location, as Abbot also has a Pancho's in Manhattan Beach that is the oldest Mexican restaurant in the South Bay and has a loyal following of customers who have been dining there for 30 plus years. The Manhattan Beach location has been voted "Best Mexican Restaurant" in the South Bay for 37 years! But the all new Pancho's in Downtown Summerlin or DTS as most of us locals refer to it, definitely delivers. From the top notch quality of the food, the friendly staff, incredible ambiance, and delicious libations, Ab has created another slam dunk of an establishment that highlights so many cultural elements including historical antiques, furniture, paintings, stained glass windows and Tiffany style hanging chandeliers. The plant life and floral décor create the feeling as if you are in a beautiful, authentic and rustic Mexican Hacienda.

Pancho's also has live entertainment throughout the week and on Fridays and Saturdays. The performances are enjoyed by local patrons with dancing later into the night. If you are hosting a special event, celebrating a special occasion, or looking for a more intimate experience, Pancho's has private rooms and other restaurant space that can be reserved for anything from birthday parties, corporate events, to wedding dinner rehearsals, or wedding receptions. For these private parties, Pancho's offers special menus and customized buffets.

The history of Pancho's is as unique as the restaurant itself. It is one of the best known landmarks in Southern California. Mr. Richard Hunt Sampson and his family owned Pancho's and the adjacent properties from 1945 until May of 1976, when they sold the properties to Ab Lawrence.

The Pancho's Owner has always been a sports fan and was even a football player at Princeton. His passion for sports transformed to his business ownership of Sports Sales Specialists and holding the exclusive rights to the L.A. Kings and Lakers for a period of time. The expansive and authentic Mexican menu coupled with delicious hand-made margaritas is one of the many reasons this Mexican Restaurant is quickly becoming a Vegas staple, and locals' new favorite. MV

T-Mobile Arena & The Park Between Monte Carlo & New York New York The Strip

When you live in a city that offers so r it is rare to "wow" people. Yet some with the latest developments near Strip and Tropicana, this city has once again fc way to surprise. T-Mobile Arena and The Park so much – it earned its own article! The mains to either side of The Park offer a fantastic gate – Tom's Urban, Diablo's Cantina, SNF Shake Sh However, there is more to explore once you w amongst the trees.

Beerhaus offers an awesome bar environmen with screens all around, a huge selection of bi (hence the name) and an excellent menu feat hormone-free meat and locally sourced produ little more highbrow than your normal bar far

Bruxie offers sandwiches on waffles. It may se weird and trendy – and it is – but it is deliciou at a great price point for the strip. Bruxie mak Chicken & Waffles incredibly portable.

Sake Rok is tucked further within The Park, wi entertaining staff and spontaneous Sake bori goes hand and hand with their incredible sus it's earned them rave reviews in such a short t being open.

The biggest surprise at The Park may be Calif Pizza Kitchen! They've stepped it up several notches with this location – with many online 4-star reviews, claiming it is unlike any other experience they've had. The ambiance alone have you saying the same thing.

Once inside T-Mobile Arena, betwixt the norr concessions fare, you'll find incredible dining options! There's a Shake Shack (yes, feet from New York New York location) as well as Pizza (from the kitchen that brought you the well-l Ferraro's). The only knock on the property is hide these deep within the concourse, so do around the building for the best bites.

All and all, we are far too spoiled in Sin City – that is fine by me. MV

Hungry Howie's Pizza

Hungry Howie's is home of the Original Flavored Crust Pizza. Using 100% mozzarella cheese and house made dough, their pizzas have us hopping in the car and heading to one of their two locations! With eight flavored crusts like: Sesame that add a wonderful crunch, Butter Cheese which is just exploding with flavor, Butter which is classic and creamy, Ranch with a zesty kick, Cajun for the spicy lovers, Garlic Herb that's just the right amount of flavor, and of course, Onion and Asiago that is packed in every bite. It's no wonder why they have been around for more than 40 years! Their logo and color stay true to their classic look and feel. I don't know about anyone else but I LOVE a good deal, and with their affordable prices and coupons, Hungry Howie's is an easy decision! MV
